Global Travel & Expense Policy

Policy ID: FIN-T&E-001
Version: 2.6
Effective Date: 1 June 2022
Owner: Corporate Finance

Executive Overview

At Apex Global, business travel plays a critical role in supporting client relationships, cross-regional collaboration, and strategic growth initiatives. This policy reflects Apex Global's commitment to balancing employee flexibility with prudent financial stewardship. All employees are expected to exercise sound judgment and align travel decisions with the firm's values of integrity, accountability, and operational excellence.

This policy version was issued during a period of rapid international expansion and reflects historical cost benchmarks and approval practices. Employees are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the contents of this policy prior to incurring any travel-related expenses. Employees should be aware that newer guidance may exist.

1. Purpose

This policy establishes guidelines for reimbursable travel and business expenses incurred by Apex Global employees to ensure fiscal responsibility, regulatory compliance, and fair treatment across regions.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all full-time employees, part-time employees, and long-term contractors traveling on behalf of Apex Global.

3. General Reimbursement Principles

- Expenses must be business-related, reasonable, and necessary.
- Itemized receipts are required for all expenses above USD 25.
- Expenses must be submitted within 90 days of travel completion.
- Expenses submitted after 120 days may be denied without exception.

4. Booking & Travel Approval

Apex Global seeks to standardize travel booking to improve duty-of-care, negotiate preferred rates, and ensure compliance with local regulations.

- Domestic travel requires people-manager approval.
- International travel requires Director-level approval.
- Employees are encouraged, but not required, to use the Apex Global Travel Portal.

5. Lodging Limits
